LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—W. H. Moulton has taken the contract to paint the village buildings in Paddock village and will begin work next week.

—Miss Bertha Russell brought into the office this week a branch from a raspberry bush in her garden containing both ripe berries and blossoms.

—The general term of the supreme court opens in Montpelier Tuesday.
There are 116 cases on the docket of which Caledonia county furnishes 16.

—St. Johnsbury fared well on legislature appointments. Col. Dennis E. May is one of the doorkeepers and John C.
Clark is a member of the governor's staff.

—The directors of the Y. M. C. A. have engaged E. B. Read of Manchester, N. H., as general secretary and he will begin his labors here last of this month. Edward McCutcheon will have charge of the rooms until the new secretary arrives.

—Lewis G. Grow has bought out William Forbes' interest in the firm of Mormon & Forbes and the new firm is now Morrison & Grow. The firm manufacture granite monuments in the plant recently occupied by the St. Johnsbury Granite Company.

—The J. C. Rockwell Company are playing to good houses at the Stanley Opera House this week. Tomorrow afternoon they give a matinee at 2 o'clock. The St. Johnsbury orchestra play for the company every performance.
The company are putting up some good plays and giving general satisfaction.

—At the regular meeting of the New England Order of Protection last Saturday evening four new members were initiated. There was a large attendance.
After the meeting a pleasant literary and musical programme was rendered, refreshments served and music provided for a social time.

—The October meeting of the Board of Trade comes next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The special committee will report their draft of a city charter.
It is an unusually important meeting and a full attendance of members is requested. The meeting will be open and all citizens are invited to attend.

—Neal Dow, the "Grand Old Man," of the temperance world, is expected to be here during the convention of the Vermont Woman's Temperance Union. He is over 90 years of age, but is hale and heartily and is still hard at work fighting the greatest evil of the age. The convention opens Oct. 22d and holds over the following Sunday.

—The CALEDONIAN is unusually interesting these days and perhaps that is the reason why our subscription list has received so many new names the past three months. In this week's paper is a full account of two state religious gatherings, Gov. Grout's message in full, the third of Mr. May's interesting papers on our currency and a letter from Mr.

Wells of Newbury Centre on early post office matters that will repay careful reading and preservation in a scrap book.

—A door blowing against a lamp and upsetting it set fire to John Palmer's house on Passumpsic street Tuesday evening. The alarm was sounded about 8:15 and the fire companies quickly responded. But the fire got a quick start and it was impossible to check it before the house and barn were destroyed. Insurance of $1500 in Crawford Ranney's agency about covers the loss. Some furniture was saved.

—A good number attended the entertainment given by the Golden Cross Commandery in Pythian hall last Friday evening. L. W. Rowell gave an interesting talk concerning the work of the lodge and also a brief account of the late state meeting at Bellows Falls. A picnicking vocal solo was rendered by Miss Anna Somerville and piano solos by Mrs.
H. Brock. A banjo solo and comic song was given by Mr. Byron. Refreshments were served and music provided for a pleasant social time.

Birthday Social.—The members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union with their friends are invited to meet with Mrs. C. Caswell, 53 Main St., from 6 to 9 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Oct. 13.
Ladies will bring refreshments as at previous gatherings of this kind. Coffee, etc., will be furnished by the hostess. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the Union.

Something Worth Attending.—At the South church parlors Tuesday evening, Oct. 13, if you are fortunate enough to be present on this supposedly unlucky date, you will be treated to an entertainment the like of which you never saw before. It is the first social of the season arranged by the young people, who propose to represent "H's B." from the first to the last page. Some interesting examples of American journalism may be expected. Refreshments will be served after the entertainment and 15 cents will be charged at the door.

Big Shipments of Cattle.—The Boston & Maine has secured contracts for the shipment of cattle from Newport to Boston, taking the cars from the Canadian Pacific at Newport. The shipments are Canadian cattle for export and the business will prove an important addition to the railroad as well as to the foreign commerce of Boston, as it is to continue throughout the year.

These consignments have heretofore been sent to St. John, N. B., but they have been taken by the steamship company with little or no profit, as there was no return cargo, neither were the shipments of miscellaneous freight from the provincial capital sufficient to guarantee full outward cargoes. By a very satisfactory traffic agreement with the Canadian Pacific the Boston & Maine is in a position to realize a handsome revenue from this added business.

State Federation of Woman's Clubs.

nization will be held in Barre next Mon-Breed of Lynn, Mass., vice-president of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, and Mrs. C. H. Stevens of St.

Johnsbury, state chairman of the cor-clubs, has been invited by the St. Johnsbury club to be their guest. She has accepted and will be present at a special meeting of the club at Pythian hall Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 3 o'clock. Mrs.

Breed's address will be followed by a social hour, when light refreshments will be served.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Club was held on Monday afternoon and was the best attended in the history of this organization. The meeting was devoted to a lecture on "Color," by Henry T. Bailey of Springfield, Mass. He illustrated his art lecture by disks, charts and flowers. He explained the difference between tones, shades and tints and gave suggestive hints for interior decoration and dress.

the Standard drug store.

Invitations have been received in town to the wedding of Charles T. Grout and Miss Alice B. Cannon at the latter's home in Bellows Falls on Wednesday, Oct. 14. Mr. Grout is the son of Editor Grout of the Newport Express and his friends here extend congratulations.

Fall and Winter Apples.—E. & T.
Fairbanks & Co. have made arrangements for their annual supply of choice winter apples from the orchards of Grand Isle. They expect to receive about 3,000 barrels. The picking of the fruit is now in progress, and they will begin the delivery about November first. Manager Spencer's long experience is a guarantee that the careful methods of handling and packing which help to give value will render the keeping qualities superior to all other fruit in this market.
The quality will be fine, the price will run low and orders are now being received from all parts of Northeastern Vermont and New Hampshire.

Wedding Bells.—The Burlington Free Press has the following account of a wedding which will interest the friends of Mr. Perham in this place:

A pretty home wedding was celebrated in this city Wednesday when Mary A.
Sheldon was married to John Maxie Per-ham of St. Johnsbury. The ceremony took place at the bride's home on North Union street. The ceremony was performed by Miss Sheldon's pastor, Rev.
Dr. Hawes, and was witnessed by only the immediate friends of the families.
The bride is a charming young lady and has many friends. The groom was a graduate of the U. V. M., class of '90, and is now civil engineer for the Fairbanks scale company of St. Johnsbury.
Both have a large circle of friends. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Per-ham will reside in St. Johnsbury.

Death of Charles L. Paddock.— Charles L. Paddock died at his home in Norwalk, Conn., last Sunday afternoon, aged 60 years. He was the son of John C. Paddock, one of St. Johnsbury's old residents, and was born and brought up in this town. He worked in the laundry at the scale shops until the war broke out when he joined the band of the Third Vermont regiment, having as two of his companions the late Frederick E. Carpenter and the late William H. Herriek.
The band was with the Third regiment through the peninsula campaign, and discharged Aug. 9, 1862. After the war Mr. Paddock went to Connecticut and has resided in Norwalk for the last 15 years. For 10 years he was foreman of the laundry in the Norwalk Lock Works.
He was a member of the Methodist church and a man highly respected by all. He leaves a son and a married daughter. He also leaves a sister, Mrs.

J. H. Hastings of Waitsfield, and two brothers in St. Johnsbury, J. A. Paddock and Harvin Paddock. The brothers attended the funeral, which was held on Tuesday afternoon.

be especially interested in the openings of the millinery stores with the latest fall styles.

trimmed millinery will occur Oct. 16 and 17 at her store at 62 Railroad street.

ing the same days at her store in the Y.
M. C. A. block.

Stanton on Main street will occur on Oct. 13, 14 and 15.

Farewell Reception.—The members of Railroad street Baptist church, together with the Odd Fellows, Ruth Lodge of Rebekahs, New England Order of Protection, ladies from the Woman's Club, and the ministers of the town, are to unite in giving Rev. Mr. Douglas and his family a farewell reception next Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows hall, Railroad street, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. All the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, not included in the above organizations are also cordially invited to be present at that time. A fine programme of music, readings and addresses will be given, to be followed by refreshments. Mr. Douglas has preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. A large number of people will be sorry to lose him and his family from the town.

Among the Fraternities.—Eastern Star Chapter will have a sale in Pythian hall on Thursday afternoon and evening, Oct. 15. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 8 and the price of the supper tickets will be 15 cents. An entertainment will be given in the evening. A general invitation is extended to the public to attend both the sale and the social.

meeting of the Daughters of Rebekah at Ludlow today.

The Knights of Pythias will have as their guests at their regular meeting Tuesday evening Grand Chancellor S. M.
Holman of Massachusetts, Supreme Representative Chas. A. Lee of Rhode Island, and the grand chancellor and supreme representatives from Maine are also expected. Rank of Page will be conferred by Apollo lodge. Refreshments will be served and there will be general speech making, a solo by T. N. Shufelt and selections by the Imperial quartette.

Wednesday morning Vermont Division No. 1, Uniformed Rank K. of P., with representatives of Apollo lodge, and the distinguished guests will leave here to attend the annual fall day and meeting of the Grand lodge at St. Albans. There will be a special meeting of the lodge this evening for the purpose of conferring the rank of Knight.

Local Election Figures.—Gen. H. K.
Ide, our efficient county member of the republican state committee, has been studying the check list since the state election and has drawn some interesting conclusions therefrom. He finds there were 1732 names on the check list, 416 names not checked for any candidate, 104 names checked for representative only, and five names of dead persons checked. Gen. Ide found about 20 names on the list that have left town, two that were not qualified to vote and several men who have died during the year.

Commenting on his investigations, Gen. Ide writes the CALEDONIAN as follows: "I think that there are fifty or more names that could be and are not on the check list. Every voter should see that his name is on the list, as the selection is not obliged to hunt them up.
This town should cast 300 more votes than it did on Sept. 1. If Brattleboro can elect their republican representative by 894 majority, we ought to make ours 900. The vote for governor should have exceeded that of representative, as the ballot box for the former was open two hours longer than for the latter; also, because there were a number of the democratic voters who were expected to vote for Grout and the balance of the ticket as they severally chose, as advised by Hon.
E. J. Phelps. As the vote for Jackson was 248 it does not seem as if many did so. That was the largest democratic vote ever cast in town with one exception."

"Our Architectural Inheritance." Henry T. Bailey of the Massachusetts state board of education, gave his lecture upon "Our Architectural Inheritance" in Athenaeum hall Monday evening. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Woman's Club. The lecturer was graciously introduced by Mrs. Walter P.
Smith, president of the Woman's Club.
Mr. Bailey first drew a map on the blackboard, showing where the arts originated and how they spread. He said that Egypt could be called the mother of art, but that Rome was the place where the wealth of the whole world was finally poured and from there the arts spread out over the world. The Egyptians were the first people to place a stone on two sticks. The Greeks were the first to give us the bridged roof and underpinning, the Romans first put one story on another, the Byzantine architect gave us the dome, the Gothic people sharpened the dome, made the tower and established the Gothic church. Mr.

Bailey illustrated the progress of architecture with drawings on the blackboard which made the lecture especially interesting and clear. St. Johnsbury buildings also furnish illustrations of the many different types of architecture, and Mr. Bailey referred to these throughout his lecture. He knows how to tell a good story and a witty remark interspersed here and there kept the audience happy.
The best building in the United States, according to 78 per cent of the architects, is Trinity church, at Boston. Mr.
Bailey is an interesting talker and all present greatly enjoyed the lecture.

By invitation of the pastor the South church pulpit was occupied last Sunday evening by Henry T. Bailey of Springfield, Mass. He spoke in a most interesting and logical way of the proofs of Christ's divinity. He said Christ's divinity was proven by the lives and death of the apostles, the martyrdom of the early Christians, the crusades, the heroism of Christians through the inquisition, the reformation, the century of missions so nearly completed, the world's fair and various incidents of modern life.

Mr. Bailey amplified all these points with striking illustrations, and the discourse was most convincing.

An impressive talk was given at the North church last Sunday evening by Mrs. M. Khair Allah, a native teacher and Bible reader among the Syrians. She spoke about her work there, the customs of the people, etc. She has been studying medicine in this country, and will soon go back to do more work among her people. She has had on sale at different places here beautiful articles of embroidery, enamel work and jewelry, brought with her from her native country and with the proceeds of which she is obtaining her medical education. She has had a good sale of these articles here. Wed-

Rev. Mrs. Jones of Barre preached last Sunday morning at the Church of the Messiah, on the topic, "Christ's Healing Power." She spoke of His power to heal the physical diseases and showed plainly the necessity of faith in the healing of sin.
She said His miracles were not necessary to establish His divinity, but merely acts of mercy. She touched upon the work of missionaries, of Dr. Parkhurst's municipal reform work and Clara Barton's work, showing what sacrifices they were all making. But there is work for us to do, even if we cannot become missionaries. Do the duty that lies nearest you and that will be the work God wishes you to do. It is only by being faithful in small things
